NUMEROLOGICAL PREDICTIONS

The Results of Numerical Conjunctions :

In your numeroscope, there is triple numerical conjunction in vertical column(s); although it is a sign of strength, stability, and achievement, yet it could be indicative of troubles as well. Since the conjoined numbers are in different planes, they are mutually disapproving of (or even antagonistic to) each other/ one another; as such, they indicate sailing through rough seas. Even if there happens much of progress, the goings-on are not likely to be smooth - although the progress may be achieved by big leaps and bounds.

In your numeroscope, the three numbers 1 & 7 & 8 are involved in numerical 'triple' conjunction - in a vertical column. This will make you fortunate in some respects - although you will be troubled by frequent interferences in your affairs.

As the numbers of ambition, popularity and concretion are 'conjoined' together, you are likely to rise to a high position and/ or go far in some field of your own choice; it is a grand combination for foundation, stability, strength and power. However, if some other numbers are there in both or one of the other two columns, then it will impart additional strength to your 'chart', and will make your life balanced and more meaningful.

In your numeroscope, the two numbers 3 & 1 are involved in numerical 'double' conjunction - in a horizontal row. This conjunction will make you fortunate - as the two ambitious numbers are 'conjoined' in the 'spiritual' plane.

However, if some other numbers are not found in both or one of the other two planes, then it can induce its own characteristic qualities, and you may not have much of interest in mundane affairs. You might be attracted to spirituality, and may even think of renouncing the world - for embracing asceticism.

In your numeroscope, the two numbers 2 & 8 are involved in numerical double conjunction - in a horizontal row. This is not a favorable combination - as the delicate and sensitive number 2 (Moon) for being 'conjoined' with the grave and stern number 8 (Saturn) on the sensual plane.

And, if some other numbers are not found in both or one of the other two planes, then it can induce its own restrictive influences, and you may have some imbalance in your life - more particularly in respect of family-life. Unless modifying influences are present in the chart, you are likely to become aggrieved owing to loss of- or separation from- someone dear - probably in early life; besides, your family-life may not be very happy.

The symbolic significations of the numerological 'signature figures' :

Your numerological signature figure is 4. The number 4 (four) is the symbol for Uranus (or the negative Sun). It stands for pride, realization, practicality, ostentation, materialism, etc. By virtue of this signature, you are very much likely to somewhat unpredictable and extremely changeful; although you might be sincere and honest, you might tend to surprise or even confuse others by your views and opinions, words and acts, etc.

If 4 is conjoined with 5, then you will possess superior degree of intellect (but you might be rope-walking on the border-line); but if it is conjoined with 8, then you might have to face some sudden and unexpected developments.

The Results of date Number :

Since your Date-number is 5, you are a number 5 person. As such, you are under the governance of the planet Mercury. You are therefore very much likely to reflect the qualitative characteristics of this planet - which represents restlessness, curiosity, intelligence, education, information, technology, etc. This number denotes ethics, reason, logic, practicality, usefulness, communication, traveling, trade, commerce, and transaction.

This is the number of reality, practicality and foundation; it signifies analysis, reason, logic, cognition, perception, understanding, comprehension, experience, appearance, physiognomy, knowledge, science, technology, expression, communication, etc. It stands for partition, segmentation, classification, division, sequence, order, powerful symbols like the cross or swastika, the wheel of fortune, the laws of nature, enumeration, relativity, etc. It signifies the intellect, consciousness, discretion, etc and leads to clear discernment between the material- and the spiritual- worlds.

5, and the figures which on numerological addition yields 5 - like 14, 23, 32, 41, 50, 59, 68, 77, etc age-periods are likely to be important or significant in your life in some way or other.

Number 5 is having some sympathy with number 8. So, you are compatible with persons having Date-number 5 or 8; your relationship with any such person is likely to be friendly, sympathetic, and long lasting.

Number 5 is not antagonistic to any number, which makes you very fortunate. So, you are far less likely to be incompatible with the people in general. You will be endowed with shapely features, pleasant disposition, courteous behavior and charming manners. Wherever you go, not only the people will accept you with open arms, they will also consider you to be one of their very own. You may do well in the fields like education, printing, editing, publishing, accountancy, consultancy, etc.

You are likely to have more such persons in the circle of your friends and acquaintances, whose first name or surname begins with the letter E, H, or N. From such persons, you can look forward to receiving benefits and/ or active support. You are also likely to have good prospect in such places, whose names begin with any of these letters.

You are likely to be fond of indigo, yellow, pink and dark blue colors, and these colors are favorable for you. As regards objects, you might be fond of disjointed forms, jointed articles, chains, links, articulations, etc; or your profession may have some connection with these. Alternately, it may have direct or indirect connection with educational institution, training- or coaching- establishment, press/ printing, publishing house, editing, consultancy, etc.

YOUR SUN-SIGN AND DATE NUMBER

General: Your Sun-Sign is Capricorn – which is governed by Saturn, the fateful planet of restriction. Your Numeral Category is 5 – which number is governed by Mercury, the planet of intellect. In spite of their intrinsic differences, these two planets are capable of blending their influences harmoniously; so, if you can exercise caution and prudence in all your affairs in general, the combination can prove to be a really very favorable one. In one hand, owing to the influence of Mercury, you will be very intelligent, clever, and versatile; on the other hand – owing to the influence of Saturn – in your early life, you may have to fight against adversities, and contend against circumstantial restrictions; you could be held back by your home ties and relations – while in later years you may need to support- and/ or care for- many persons. Yet you will never become disheartened, and always nourish a very high ambition. You will have remarkable ideas and plans, and attempt things on big lines; you may start a new industry or a business venture of your own. The circle of your friends and acquaintances may not be very large; but you will be contented with a few friends you will have – as you will have lasting relationship with them. You will feel closely drawn to persons born on dates of the 4-series and 1-series – i.e., on dates (4 or 13 or 22) and (1 or 10 or 19 or 29) of any month.

You will possess keen intellect, penetrating mind, critical nature, and a tactful and diplomatic disposition. You will be a person of very reserved type, not trust people very easily, remain suspicious about strangers and doubtful about less known people, and always wish to remain duly prepared to meet with the eventualities. Although you will not have the inclination for accruing benefits at other people's costs, you will always remain alert for defending your righteous interests. You will not have any real desire for stashing money – as you will always consider it merely as a necessity for survival; but as you may have the fear of facing problems owing to financial inconveniences – for which you may not be close-fisted in your expenses. In respect of investing your money also, you will be very cautious and prudent; you will start judging the pros and cons before arriving at your decision.

You are likely to develop an unusually acquisitive nature; you may tend to hoard up in trunks and closets many things – which might never be of any use to you. Not only in respect of things, in respect of gathering useful information also, your collection will be ever increasing. You will always like to remain prepared that if any necessity ever arises, then if it is available with you, you won't need to look for it and gather it from somebody else. It is thus no surprise that a number of highly competent professionals like surgeons, doctors, engineers, scientists, technologists, chemists, organizers, etc are born with this particular combination of Sun-Sign and Numeral Category.

In profession, you may choose a rather difficult kind of career, and face great opposition owing to differences of views and opinions. Although by way of worldly consideration, you are more likely to be highly successful, the accrued success may mean a little or nothing to you. During sometime in your early part of life, you may have suffered some great sorrow or affliction owing to the premature 'great escape' or estrangement of a close family relation – which might have had left a deep scar or permanent void in your mind. For this, you may not be able to enjoy the riches; you would rather donate big sums for a good cause – like founding a research institution or a hospital or the like.

Finance: In spite of being somewhat wayward in many respects, having perseverance in an exceptional degree will be your greatest asset. Your cautious and reserved nature will carry you through, and lead you to success. Although you may not be at all aggressive, you will always believe that the best way to win in a conflict is to avoid the conflict altogether; you will win your own battles by making 'glorious' compromises – but you will be tactful enough to stay in advantageous terms. In the truest sense of the term, you will prove to be the architect of your own fortune – which other people call fate. However, you should remain careful during your late age-periods; some people – who might be your employees or servants or even relatives – might try to cause you losses by way of theft or misappropriation.

Health: Your working pattern and/ or condition and/ or hours might be quite unusual, yet quite often you may go on straining yourself with overwork; annoyances, anxieties, and depression are also likely to tell upon your health. Taking exercise regularly, sticking to the simplest form of diet, and getting back to nature will keep you in good stead. You should also remain very careful – as you may become a victim of wrong diagnosis or wrong treatment or inadvertent intake of wrong medicines.

Favorable Dates: The following dates will be favorable for starting anything new or carrying out any plan:

The Dates of 4-series (Uranus): 4, 13, 22; and the Dates of 1-series (Sun): 1, 10, 19, 28.

Unfavorable Dates: The following dates may not be favorable for starting anything new or carrying out any plan:

The Dates of 8-series (Saturn): 8, 17, 26.

Favorable Colors: The following colors will be favorable for strengthening your aura, and increasing your magnetic influence:

The Colors of 1-series (Sun): All shades of yellow, gold, bronze, and golden brown; and the Colors of 4-series (Uranus): All shades of sapphire-blues, grays, pastels, and electric hues.

Favorable Gemstones: The following gemstones will improve your luck, and highlight your chances of success:

Diamond, Sapphire, Topaz, and Black Pearl.

ASHTA-MANGALAM PREDICTION

Objervations from the signified 'Animals' :

The conditions are not sufficient to warrant any specific conclusion.

Observations from the signified 'Yoni(Nature)' :

For your Ashtamangalam query, the random-generated 3-digit secondary root number has 6 as middle digit, which corresponds to the yoni (nature) of Dhuma (Fire). The indication is not very favorable, as it indicates that you are likely to suffer as a result of some calamitous mishap like outbreak of fire at your residence or in workplace - in which respect you should remain very careful and cautious.

Objervations from the signified 'Tatwas(or Primodial Elements)' :

The conditions are not sufficient to warrant any specific conclusion.

Objervations from the signified 'Planets' :

The reduced figure obtained by adding the three figures of the random-generated secondary root number is 4 - which corresponds to the planet Mercury. This is not a very fortunate indication, and it signifies possibility of suffering from itches, lingering skin eruptions or sores in the body, intermittent digestion disorders, and chance of being scratched or bitten by domestic nailed and toothed animals like dogs, cats, etc.

Significations obtained from the Remainder figure of Root Number :

As the remainder becomes 6, it is indicative of possible health-affection of one of the relatives of your spouse. If any of them has fallen sick, then prolonged treatment might be required, and complete recovery may take a fairly long duration.

The Original Root Number - in relation to the queries pertaining to Health :

As the left digit in your original root number happens to be odd, it is a favorable indication. It indicates that the part of your body above the region of your neck is free from any disease or affliction.

As the middle digit in your original root number happens to be odd, it is a favorable indication. It indicates that the portion of your body between the region of your neck and above the waist is free from any disease or affliction.

As the left digit in your original root number happens to be even, it is not a favorable indication. It indicates that the lower portion of your body beginning from the waist might be afflicted by some disease or discomfort. The corresponding planet being Moon , it will be the determinant for the nature of disease or affliction.

SIGNIFICATIONS OF NAME NUMBERS

(Numerary Method)

Significations of Full Name(Rajesh Kanna)

Symbolic Signification for Rajesh(3)

The Empress : The first product of the divine will and imagination, Urania. Symbolizes ideation, progress, production, expansion, growth, plenty and abundance.

Allegorical Signification for Rajesh(3)

3: Denoted by 'The Empress'. It signifies revelation of a receptive divine beauty in utmost perfection. The mundane things are voluptuously attracting you to move with the flow and revel in the delights of senses - which you need to control for your own good. Look up and stare above - you will see many things you have never bothered to see, allow a free play to your imaginings and invite the dreams you want to feel by closing your eyes. As imaginations do have a reality of their own, you will find yourself in total harmony with the nature - the earth, human beings, animals, other living creatures, trees and plants, inanimate objects, etc. What else you think you may ever need?

Symbolic Signification for Kanna(14)

The two Urns : The vital forces, friendship, social obligations, reciprocal affection, chemical affinity.

Allegorical Signification for Kanna(14)

14: Denoted by 'The Two Urns or Temperance'. It signifies that the temptations might keep you swinging between the two extremes, and you may feel quite disturbed at times. But the trials and tribulations you will go through will lead you toward the middle way or integration. The lifeless outer shell will break in two and fall apart - as the life that was contained therein no longer needs it; it needs more freedom and scope of expansion. Gradually you will mature, grow fuller, and stretch yourself spiritually. By following the path of moderation, you will conquer all your fears and doubts; and when you have arrived there, your true self will shine forth with profound realization.

Symbolic Signification for Rajesh Kanna(17)

The Star : Faith, assurance, hope, expectation, illumination, intuition, birth, success, riches, honor.

Allegorical Signification for Rajesh Kanna(17)

17: Denoted by 'The Star'. It signifies that you should meditate upon your own nature, and find your own star. By following your own star, you will arrive at the center of your true self; you will suddenly realize that a great secret is going to be revealed - which is the golden key to unfold your creative potentials. All your illusions and doubts will be wiped clean, and you will know the answers to all your questions. You may walk under the calm and quiet night sky - looking for inspiration, and contemplate your own existence on this earth. The joyously radiating light rays emanating from your own star will calmly surround you, and give you happiness illumined.
